

By Phat

Just as I thought . . . Great ideas are always the subject of scoffing remarks . . . My P.P.S.S. (Phat's System for Saving Sunshine) got plenty of ribbing this week . . . There wasn't any mail on the subject but plenty of verbal comment . . . Most of which concerned Mrs. G's concern over my condition and the suggestion that she call in the men in white . . . Oh, well, all of us advanced thinkers have been pilloried.

THE MAIL brought one letter which I didn't think was nice . . . Last week I said I was using a carton which once contained canned fish as a receptacle for random notes . . . This week I got a card which commented: No wonder your stuff smells. . . . Another letter had to do with one of my favorite campaigns—benches . . . "Why not, when they go ahead with the proposed widening of Palm Canyon drive, have high curbs installed. Then place cushions on the curbs. That will solve the seating problem on Palm Canyon drive. Let the people sit there. . . . By the way, have you any influence with the city hall? I'd like to get the soft seat concession."

ANOTHER letter came from Johnny Pagoria, Chicago Sun photographer, who recently spent his vacation here . . . "Enjoyed my recent visit in Palm Springs. While you bask in the sun, I'm slushing around in the snow on the various assignments from the city desk" . . . And a phone call from Mrs. G.: "How's the weather down in Palm Springs? It's cold here in Los Angeles and plenty of smog." . . . Am quoting these two comments in answer to those people who ribbed me for calling our weather "moderate." last week . . . No slush, no snow, no smog . . . Just sunshine . . . (And I hope tomorrow won't be cloudy.)

COMES AN IDEA from Grant Wood of The Sun staff . . . He said that the other morning on the Fact-Finder program a questioner asked what was meant by a "Funicular" railroad and the answer was a cable-operated tram . . . The announcer also said, according to Wood, that the popular Italian song, "Funiculi Funicula" describes the pleasures of riding one of these trains . . . Wood's suggestion is, that since Palm Springs is going to be on the ground end of an aerial tram, cable-operated, it could very well adopt that song as its theme song . . . That's not what E. B. G. writes . . . He wants the theme song to be "Until the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold." . . . That's treason.

BEST definition of the week comes from the office of Frank Partridge . . . He told me of a man whose wife had become an ardent horsewoman . . . Every morning she left him to make his own orange juice, eggs and bacon while she galloped blithely over the desert . . . Just an old saddle-bag, he muttered as he looked for the grease he figured the bacon should be fried in . . . I like that story that Dick Haynes, now at the Racquet club, told the other day . . . It's a different version of that famous man-bites-dog newspaper story . . . According to the radio singing star, a reporter rushed into the newsroom and yelled at the city editor . . . "SCOOOP!" . . . "What is it?" asked the editor . . . "Did a man bite a dog?" . . . "No, a bull threw a congressman."

COMES into the office one J. S. Rollman jr., city passenger agent for the Santa Fe . . . Which reminds me that once the Santa Fe took 40 editors and their wives on a shake-down trip of their then new El Capitan . . . Los Angeles to Grand Canyon and back . . . They picked newspaper men, I guess, to get the most accurate estimate on what the stainless steel cars could take . . . It was a great trip and the last time I have seen icicles a yard long and snow three and four feet deep . . . The Santa Fe publicity men were disappointed because it snowed all the way but Mrs. G. and I enjoyed it . . . Being practically a native son, the sight of so much snow was beautiful . . . Talk about THIS desert getting cold! . . . It was 5 above at Barstow and you could steam the windows at Needles . . . Recall seeing one forlorn-looking individual standing before the lodge . . . "Isn't this great!" I said, friendly-like . . . "Great!" he snorted. "I came out here from Ohio to get away from this sort of thing."

EVERYBODY wants to get into the act, as Durante says . . . I get all sorts of tips on what's going to be the top tune on the Hit Parade . . . Neva Youngs is all enthused over "The Old Lamp-lighter" and says it will be No. 1 soon, while Don Cameron claims "Cynthia's In Love" is going to be it . . . I think Mrs. Youngs is right but am still looking for "I Guess I'll Take The Papers" to make it . . . And "Gal in Calico" is going to be there, too . . . Entertainment in the Village is tops these days . . . Danny at the Lido has added a new one, so has the Pogo Pogo, the Rolly room, while at the other spots, the same good music and vocalizing is still available.

Well, this is the end of the line . . . All out.

Chest Drive Workers in Final Rally

Meet Today for Instructions, Big Push on Tomorrow

Preliminary to ceremonies tomorrow morning officially launching the annual appeal for funds in the business and residential areas, all workers of the Combined Fund Campaign of the Palm Springs Community Chest and Community Hospital will meet today at 4 p.m., in the Fiesta House at the Desert Inn for final instructions, it was announced by General Chairman Ken Kirk.

There the volunteers, who will devote many hours during the next two weeks to the task of raising $35,000 that will insure the uninterrupted operation of hospital, charitable and character-building agencies of Palm Springs, will receive from the general chairman the last-minute information. It is urgent that every worker be present for this meeting, Mr. Kirk emphasized today. Many more volunteers are needed for the drive.

FOLLOWING tomorrow's opening ceremonies in the Plaza where a giant thermometer which will register progress of the fund appeal will be unveiled, the volunteers will fan out through the city to urge all employed persons to "buy a share in their community" with one day's pay, and to seek substantial contributions by persons more able to give to the worthy cause, the general chairman said.

"Surely the continued service to Palm Springs of such organizations as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Welfare and Friendly Aid, Community Hospital, Boys Club, and the Desert Museum are worth one day's pay or every person employed here," he declared, urging that every resident of Palm Springs make it his personal duty to see that his donation is in the central fund.

PERSONS MISSED by solicitors may mail their contributions to P. O. Box 934 or leave them at the Community Chest headquarters on Indian Avenue just north of the main entrance to Torney General Hospital.

Participating in the Saturday morning parade will be members of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scout and Boys Club organizations here. They will assemble on Amado Road west of Palm Canyon drive at 10:30 a.m., and will begin a march southward on Palm Canyon drive at 10:45, arriving at the Plaza in time for the ceremonies at 11 a.m.

THE GIANT THERMOMETER which General Chairman Kirk hopes can "go over the top" before the end of the two weeks campaign period, will be unveiled and dedicated to its work of calling the public's attention to the fund appeal by Mayor Clarence Hyde. The public is invited to participate in these exercises.

Short talks were also given by Carl Lykken, president of the Community Chest and Judge E. E. Thereiou, president of the Community Hospital.

Meanwhile, Chairman Kirk voiced warm praise for the outstanding achievements of the Advance Gifts division under the direction of Frank Cutler. By mail and by personal calls on prospects throughout the Village a substantial fund has been realized and will be announced as the reports of the fund appeal come in.

Training

Youngsters Getting Ready for Circus

Well, youngsters, do you want to take part in the big Circus Week show?

Now's the time to start. The current Children's Saturday afternoon matinees are the preliminary training for this big show. Under direction of Holly Lash Visel and Roy Randolph, much talent is being found among Village youngsters and children of winter residents.

Rehearsals start at 12:30 and free instruction is given in singing and dancing. Mrs. Lois Lux presides at the piano at these sessions.

Children are urged to attend these rehearsals and receive free instructions.

Talent unearthed in these Saturday afternoon matinees will be featured in a bogshow Circus Week when more than 200 Village youngsters will participate in a great vaudeville show.

Plan Study Of Policy At Hospital

Members Meet, Name Directors, Hear Reports of Work

Ninety members of the Community hospital association present at the annual meeting of that organization yesterday saw ten persons elected to the board of directors, heard an analysis of the hospital's December 12 report of its operation by Howard Jay, administrator, and listened for a good half hour to a discussion, not at times, whether the hospital should re-write that part of its by-laws which prohibits non-member doctors of the Riverside Medical association to practice there.

Elected to the board of directors were Arthur Bailey, Earl Coffman, Mrs. Charles Farrell, Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Mrs. Mildred Hillery, Kenneth Kirk, Stanley Rosin, Mrs. J. H. Cannon, Jacques Crommelin and Frank Cutler. These successful candidates were submitted by the nominating committee and read to the assembled group by Mrs. Theresa Field.

DR. JOHN R. MACARTNEY, nominated from the floor, was defeated although, unlike Robert Ransom who was also nominated and declined the honor, he had left the auditorium of the El Paseo building at least a half hour before the nominations were in order.

Jay pointed out that without a doubt many lives were saved and many improved since the hospital in its temporary quarters in Ward B of the Torney General Hospital, opened its doors. He said that a community hospital is not operated with an eye to profits and the difference between that which it gains in receipts and actual cost of operation should not be placed in the category which would classify this difference as a deficit.

"THERE IS NO SUCH word as a 'deficit' that can be applied to a community hospital," Jay declared. This difference between what is taken in and expended See HOSPITAL, Page 8

Want A Pet?

Eight of Them Are Available at Pound

Eight potential pets for children are languishing in the city dog pound, awaiting to be "bail-out" by some who would like to have a dog as a constant play companion for their kids.

According to Mrs. O. B. McRory, wife of Dr. O. B. McRory, veterinary who operates the Palm Springs Veterinary hospital, some of the canines are shepherds and others are part cockers.

"The dogs have been in 'custody' for more than ten days," Mrs. McRory said, "and under the law we can't keep them much longer."

Three Investigations of Reservation Under Way

MEMORIAL—Architect John Clark's sketch of proposed Owen B. Coffman Post, American Legion, World Wars Memorial to be built on site on Bel-lardo road. Plans for its early construction are being pushed.

World Wars Memorial Plans Shown

Enthusied by inspection of the architectural plans and drawings for the building, members of the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion this week attacked with renewed vigor the job of raising sufficient money to construct this spring the World Wars Memorial Building on Belardo Road, according to G. K. Sanborn, commander of the post.

Submitted by Architect John Clark of Clark and Frey, the front elevation drawing and the floor plan for the memorial building were acclaimed by the veterans and the national and state American Legion officials visiting here. There is no doubt in the minds of the post members that the local Memorial structure will be the most attractive in Southern California, in the belief of Commander Sanborn.

COMPLETE STATISTICS on costs, possible sources of additional revenue and other information now is being assembled by the building committee of the Legion post with a view to arriving at a decision within the next few weeks as to whether the structure can be erected this spring and summer so as to be ready for occupancy next fall.

Needed for meetings of the Veterans groups and other civic bodies here, the auditorium also is sorely needed for conventions, See MEMORIAL, Page 8

Unanimous Entire Desert Area Favors Realignment

With the addition of the Blythe Chamber of Commerce support for the move, the proposal of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for re-apportionment of Riverside county's five supervisory districts this week bore the endorsement of all major civic groups from the San Jacinto Mountains to the Colorado River.

Action of the Blythe Chamber in supporting the re-apportionment proposal was taken following the appearance before the group Tuesday by Harry C. Harper, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. Previous: See UNANIMOUS, Page 4.

Legionnaires From District To Meet Here

Palm Springs will be the focal point for Legionnaires from all points in Riverside and Orange counties next Sunday when the 21st district convention is held at the El Paseo theater here, Commander G. K. Sanborn of the Owen B. Coffman post, said yesterday.

Delegates from the various Legion posts in the two counties will meet at the El Paseo theater. The Legion auxiliary convention See LEGIONNAIRES, Page 8

Rocco in Court As Gems Still Lie Unclaimed

Ned Rocco, 25, was scheduled to go before Judge E. E. Thereiou in local court today on a charge of burglary in preliminary hearing.

Rocco is accused of taking gems valued at $5,000 from the cottage room of Mrs. Helen Agnew at a local guest ranch. He later confessed, police say, to shipping the jewels to his parents in Hartford, Conn., as a Christmas gift.

Following his confession, local police contacted Hartford police and the jewels were recovered. They were received by Chief of Police G. A. Kettmann this week.

Mrs. Agnew, now in Bel Air where she resides, was notified and held a long conversation with local police Tuesday. But up to yesterday she had not appeared to reclaim her gems.

Trailer Fires Call Out Dept.

Quick action on the part of firemen this week saved two trailers from destruction by flames at the Palm Springs Trailer Park.

The first alarm was sounded Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. when a pile of wood near the trailer of E. B. McCarthy got out of control and scorched the side of the trailer before the fire could be put out.

Thursday morning at 9:10 a gasoline stove inside the trailer of Mary Andrade started to flare up and threatened the structure but was extinguished by firemen without causing any damage.

Take the case of Mrs. Levona C. Smith of Redlands and how she is alleged to have involved a twenty-year-old boy friend or acquaintance in the theft of an automobile, according to police records.

Warren Rorer, 20, who was found driving the car was released by authorities, but the accident in which he was involved while operating the vehicle in San Bernardino only led the police to the door of Mrs. Smith, and now she is languishing in jail trying to explain a lot of things that are mighty hard to explain if you know how inter-

Amvets Send Group Down For Survey

City, County and War Veterans in Study of Conditions

Long considered a menace to the health of the community, as well as a sore spot in the beauty that is Palm Springs, three independent investigations of conditions pertaining to health, sanitation and general living conditions in certain portions of section 14 of the Indian reservation were launched this past week.

Without any knowledge that City Manager William E. Alworth had asked the county health authorities to investigate health and sanitation as it exists on the reservation, the Palm Springs post of the American Veterans of World War II launched an independent survey of its own.

ACCORDING to Alworth, the city itself, is now scrutinizing the situation on section 14 for violation of the city ordinances pertaining to buildings, electrical wiring and plumbing installations.

The county health authorities are studying the sanitation and health and conditions under which inhabitants of the area are living. Two of these investigators, who were ordered off the property of Clem Segundo, last Tuesday, returned again on Wednesday determined to complete the careful survey.

THE SERVICE organization felt that if conditions were as bad as reported, following an investigation by a committee composed of World War II veterans, all residents of this area were in jeopardy. This committee reported that many of the camps and sanitation conditions existing there, while not up to the very best in qualification, correction of these existing faults could easily be made. However, other densely populated areas on the reservation were in the words of Dr. Claude Church, former colonel in the United States army and health inspector on the desert for General Patton, very poor.

While the doctor and his committee were on a tour of inspection on the reservation, the two officials of the county health department were premonitory told to leave the property by Clem Segundo, who leases the land he claims is his, to Mexicans, negroes and whites. It was found that approximately 50 to 60 families live on Segundos' land and all the water used by these residents is served by a 3/4 inch water pipe.

"They want me to have flush-toilets," declared Segundo, "but how can I when the water is insufficient."

A CHECK with the water company showed that 6-inch water mains run within 100 yards of the property but both the Indian and the government have refused to pay for extension of these mains or for larger services to those living on this part of the reservation. What toilets do exist are hardly adequate facilities for See RESERVATION, Page 8

Auto Plate Stolen Here Solves Case

ested police can become in the legal ownership of an automobile.

HOW ALL OF THIS has anything to do with Palm Springs goes back to Oct. 31 when Lucille Krebs, 145 E. Amado, came to the police department here and reported that her automobile was denuded of the one and only license plate it had sported throughout the war years and thereby had a lot of sentiment attached to it. Little did she know then that it had been purposely taken off her car by a female expertly wielding a screw driver and monkey wrench, odd as that may be.

Anyway the mystery of the missing license plate was solved See AUTO THEFT, Page 4 in several museums in Europe, Jean de Botton has exhibited for several years in the Carnegie In-

of King George VI, Jean de Bot-for pageantry and his gay and carefree approach to life that makes de Botton's paintings so pleasing to the eye and so particularly "right" in the desert at-

James W. Lane says in "Art

Botton is gay and good. His water colors of King George's Coronation a few years ago had to be gay, but now we see that the artist's other work also is. He has brought to America a precious thing: lightness of touch and fantasy. Not such fantasy as is involved or incomprehensible, but the best type of Continental fantasy. Whether he paints a stag hunt, cowboys, Taxco, or San Francisco, his oils have vim. Away with the heavily underscored rhythms of some of our more unsubtle if popular painters; in-

Hotels Face Hike in Laundry Price Result Court Rule

It may cost you more to get your shirt back from the laundry and it may take longer.

Hotel and apartment house owners and managers, meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon, heard local laundry managers warn of a probable 20 per cent increase in price because of a recent court decision putting laundry workers under provisions of the wage and hour act.

WORKERS in laundries are now limited to 40-hour week with over-time pay thereafter. Heretofore, they have been on a 48-hour week. To meet the added costs, the laundries will have to up their prices 20 per cent.

Addressing the owners were I. D. Link, Banning Laundry; William Cochran, Redlands Laundry and Norval Kelly of the Desert Hand Laundry.

FRANK BENNETT, chairman of the hotel and apartment house committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed the group of hotel men who admitted they could do nothing about the situation.

It is not believed that the price to individuals will be upped. The boost will apply only to commercial accounts.

Governor Earl Warren

By ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

The little politicians are at work. The hotel lobbies in Sacramento are their hives, and defeated candidates and lobbyists are swarming in them to prevent good things from coming true.

The aim of these little men is to play havoc with Governor Warren's fine, constructive program, even before the concrete facts of it are presented to the Legislature.

I saw enough, during my recent visit in Sacramento, to almost—but not quite—lose my faith in politics. I saw defeated candidates and lobbyists use the old back-slapping technique and the "you-are-my-pal" approach to win cohorts in their program of destruction.

What brought me back to a sense of values was Governor Warren himself. He stood, a pillar of strength, among his fellowmen on inaugural day. As he read his message to the senators and assemblymen, he was direct, honest and forthright. The smirks on some faces didn't rile him. "This is it," he seemed to say—

"My heart is with the people of California, all dissenters notwithstanding."

Already, the Governor's health insurance program has been termed by some, "a program from Moscow." That anybody, man or woman, could be so shortsighted as to believe it is his aim to socialize medicine, is ridiculous to discuss. He knows that something must be done to guard the health of our people and he intends, with the cooperation of the thousands who voted for him, to find the way. California is fortunate indeed to have as head of state a man who doesn't fear to express the strength of his convictions, one who refuses to be driven into a corner by backward thinking people. Such people, if the truth were known, never stepped an inch out of their way to investigate health problems as Governor Warren has done.

PROPER HOUSING walks hand in hand with high standards of health. On my return to Palm Springs, I inspected the tent cities adjacent to the valley towns. The weather was very cold—for three days the thermometers in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys had stood at 37 degrees. Consequently, I shivered for more than one reason when I talked to the inhabitants of one tent city.

The tents—more than one hundred of them—are about ten feet square. On the day of my visit, all clothes lines were filled with laundry—mostly infants' apparel. Inside the tents, young mothers, trying to be cheerful, faced the problem of keeping their babies warm. There were no conveniences of any kind.

SUB-STANDARDS of living are not the American way. Governor Warren recognizes this fact, and he believes, most earnestly, that all legislators should recognize it too. His is not "a program from Moscow." It is strictly an American program of honor and common decency. The people of California should keep a sharp eye on every individual who snipes at it.

Tax Notes

By EDWARD J. NELISSON

A CORPORATION AND ITS SURPLUS

Question 8 on the 1946 Corporation Income Tax Return asks information regarding dividends paid:

"If the total of line I of Schedule M, page 4, is less than 70% of the earnings and profits for the taxable year, state reasons for retention of such earnings."

The fact that earnings have been allowed to accumulate will not of itself subject you to section 102 penalty. There are many reasons why a corporation may have to keep its earnings. However, these reasons must be supported by facts, not mere unproven contingencies. Remember that your 1946 tax return may not be examined before 1948 or 1949 and by that time the reasons you had in 1946 have either been proven or were groundless.

WHAT CAN BE CONSIDERED valid reasons for the retention of earnings? Here are some examples:

- 1—Commitments covering the purchase of machinery, equipment or furniture.
- 2—Plans for the expansion of business.
- 3—Plans for the construction of new buildings or additions to your present building.
- 4—Necessity for increasing your inventory to bring it up to normal or to meet future demands.

It is not enough to have these reasons in mind. When earnings are retained for specific purposes, it is desirable that the use of the earnings for these purposes be authorized by the directors and the matter made a subject of suitable minutes at the time the decisions were made. If possible, actual reserve funds should be provided.

OF COURSE, these precautions will not excuse the accumulation of earnings if the plans have not been carried out. Also, there are many possible situations under which, even after all precautions have been taken, it will make it impossible to justify the non-payment of dividends. For example: Loans made to the stockholders of a small closely held corporation, investments in other companies or ventures not related to the business in which the corporation is engaged; or any accumulation of surplus beyond the reasonable needs of the business.

On the other hand, there are many more reasons than the foregoing four reasons which will constitute valid protection against the assessment of the surtax under Section 102, but the facts to support these reasons must be strong enough to overcome the presumption that the earnings were retained in the corporation to avoid surtax upon the shareholders. These facts can only be gathered by making a thorough analysis of your corporate structure and the surtax can only be avoided by careful planning.

Bennett, who has not been feeling well lately, will go to Birmingham Veterans hospital at Van Nuys for a check-up and a much-needed rest.

But he plans to come back to Palm Springs. "I'll never leave the desert," he said.

Doing the Village

with Moya Henderson

With a brisk breeze on their backs, members of the Desert Riders and their guests, the Palm Springs Horseman's association, rode out to Araby Point Wednesday morning for breakfast. Wives of the members were also invited so a goodly throng assembled. Desert equestrians are concerning themselves with the preservation of the trails this year. Many of the old trails not only need improving and marking but need to be sorted out from the maze of new subdivisions which have been opened.

An old timer, Paul Murphy, was in the Village this week. Paul sold out his interest in La Casita in Riverside, and came back to his old haunts to celebrate. Jackie Youngs, who grew up in Palm Springs and deserted us for Pasadena after his discharge from the navy, returned for a visit this week.

APOLOGIES for an omission in the last column. Should have read 'Ruth Roberson and Ernie Donlevie at the Doll House.' Needless to say there have been repercussions—the price one pays for being so well known.

Any one in doubt of the latest bridge conventions has only to ask one of the sharks who never misses a Thursday session at Florence Murphy's. These afternoon bridge games have proved more than successful with every one from a beginner to an authority enjoying themselves.

Every Villager will have a visitor in the near future, probably a neighbor of yours, who is giving his time and effort to the Community Chest drive. Remember the money from this fund is going to the Community hospital as well as local organizations such as the Girl and Boy Scouts so don't forget to be generous when one of these willing workers comes around.

THUNDERBIRD Guest Ranch got off to a good start this week with many Villagers making the short drive down to wish Frank Bogert their best and much success. With such a lovely setting, beautifully planned buildings and the lovely, comfortable desert interior this bids well to be one of the most popular spots on the desert and certainly nowhere will you find a more genial host.

A new organization is making its debut next week in Palm Springs and all those who are politically minded and interested in fun as well, should turn out. The Young Republicans will hold their first meeting in the Fiesta House on Thursday at eight o'clock. All registered Republicans between the ages of 21 and 36 are eligible to join this ambitious new group. Plans are in the offing for a dinner dance to launch their social activities off to a good start and some outstanding leaders in the state will be down to grant the constitution. Riverside county has long been recognized as active in state politics and young ideas and young leaders are needed today more than ever before.

An invitation to residents of Palm Springs to assist in welcoming the first giant Skymaster, 44-place plane when it lands here shortly after 6:15 p.m., today to inaugurate this major ship service between Los Angeles and Palm Springs, was issued today by Phil Delano, president of the Palm Springs Chamber

DON CABALLERO

There was no let-down after the gay holiday season here and the past week found many merry affairs reported.

Some Villagers took advantage of the end of vacation days to make brief trips to Los Angeles or their homes if near-by. But few winter residents left and new ones who spent the holidays at home, arrived to spend the rest of the season.

TERMINATING their stay early, Mr. and Mrs. J. Darsie Lloyd closed their home here Tuesday and are now at their Los Angeles home where they will remain until May.

They have spent 14 seasons in the Village.

VISITING their son, Dexter, in Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haymond of Tacoma and Palm Springs went to Los Angeles Tuesday.

Their son is attending a radio school there and will be associated with his father, owner of stations in the northwest and one in Arizona.

Dexter Haymond was a guest here last fall following his release from the signal corps.

ENDING their stay of the past month here in the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, N.Y., and Mrs. John Dunbar returned to Los Angeles this week.

While here they entertained a number of friends. Visiting them were Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lemcke, Mr. Dunbar's brother-in-law and sister, and the latter's son, Martin Lemcke, who is attending University of California.

ENGAGEMENT of Marilyn Miller, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Dan L. Miller, and Lt. Clifford C. Bell of Geneva, N.Y., was announced today by her parents.

No definite date has been set for the wedding but the ceremony is expected to be held in the near future.

The announcement was made recently at a party and a dance at the Officers' Club, the occasion being the bride-to-be's 18th birthday.

The young couple will reside in Germany where the prospective bridegroom-to-be is stationed.

ACTIVITIES of the Palm Springs Gray Lady Corps are not at an end and the local organization met a recent afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lauritz Hansen.

Formerly active at the Torney

General Hospital during the war period, the organization is now devoting its time to planning outings for convalescent veterans at the various hospitals in the state.

DINING and dancing featured two parties hosted by Major Reuben H. Fleet on his recent visit to Palm Springs.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. D'Alesio were Major Fleet's guests at the Pago Pago and at the Tennis club.

GUEST HERE at the home of her son is Mrs. Addie Lapham of Chicago. She is the mother of Donald Lockett, well-known Villager.

She will visit at their home on Mission road for a month.

FROM CHICAGO and here for the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hardy were honored at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. William Colburn at their home at 453 Santa Rosa drive.

BOB BENNETT, who this week sold his famed burro train and plans to go to Birmingham hospital, Van Nuys, for a check-up and rest, was out having a final fling last Saturday night.

His guests at the Doll House were his pretty 16-year-old daughter, Betty Lee Bennett, and Ruth Waldo.

Of course, they took the burro ride and after that it was the movies.

LEAVING Palm Springs by airplane Sunday was Mrs. Anna Russell of Chicago, who had spent several weeks in the Village.

She was the guest here of her son at his ranch near Palm Springs.

ly, the Cathedral City and Indio Chambers of Commerce had backed the plan.

Ten years ago the county's five supervisory districts were realigned by the county board but since that time tremendous changes have been made in population, assessed valuation and in general developments. Desert Chambers of Commerce are pointing toward a reapportionment that will assure the desert area of the maximum representation on the Board of Supervisors.

The desert country of the county, representing two-thirds of the total area, has never had a desert resident on the governing body.

various divisions the campaign will be launched in earnest following Saturday's ceremony. Heading the important business division, upon which will fall the responsibility for raising a major portion of the remainder of the budget, is Florian Boyd, who directed the successful Community hospital appeal two years ago. The equally important residential division is headed by Edward Bacon and William Malouf as co-chairmen, and Stanley Rosin directs the big task of contacting the hotels and apartment houses.

Other chairmen who will supervise important divisions of the work are: J. W. Kyle, chairman, Cathedral City; Gene Hughes, bars and restaurants; Mrs. Frank Purcell, agency cooperation; Robert W. Peterson, city-public division; Ernest Alschuler, Community Hospital; Dr. Hugh Stevens, Physicians; Miss Catherine Finch, schools, and Francis Crocker, speakers' bureau.

Dr. Parkinson and Family Visit Here

Dr. Roy H. Parkinson, noted eye surgeon of San Francisco, and his family are guests at the Casa Madera. The doctor and his family come to the desert several times during the course of a winter season for relaxation and sun.

Three Held in Stabbing Affair

Raymond Bailey, 42, father of six children, his oldest son Thomas, 19, and a family friend William A. Abshire, were in the county jail today in lieu of $2500 bail each, charged with assault with a deadly weapon arising out of the almost fatal stabbing of John Foshee Jr., 25, negro, last Sunday at 6 p.m. at the corner of Indian avenue and Andreas road.

The trio were arraigned before Judge Eugene E. Theriault Thursday morning, after police had failed to gain a confession from one of the trio as to who wielded the knife. Their preliminary hearing was set in the same court January 31 at 10 a.m.

Chet Goff Back On Local Dept.

Charles (Chet) Goff, who was given a leave of absence from service on the Palm Springs fire department on June 9, 1944, to join the U.S. Navy, is back at the firehall again. He resumed duties Wednesday of this week.

Goff is on terminal leave and expects to be a complete civilian again on Feb. 4. He was hospitalized after the Iwo Jima battle for burns received there but says he is again "in the pink."

FBI Man Talks To Lions Club

William Murphy, FBI agent stationed at San Diego, addressed local Lions at their weekly luncheon session at the Desert Inn yesterday.

Gordon Feelings was chairman for the day. Plans for the Tenth anniversary dinner dance of the club were discussed. The dance will be held Friday, January 24, at the Desert Inn.

Melvin Jones, founder of Lions International, and many other outstanding guests will be present and honored at the event. James Shea is in charge of arrangements for the dance.

Curtail Village Publicity Plans

Revision of the publicity program for Palm Springs was voted by directors of the chamber of commerce at a recent meeting and all funds collected for this purpose have been set aside for fall and spring use, Harry C. Harper, secretary-manager of the chamber announced today.

Bob Wolcott, who has been handling publicity for the Village, left yesterday for the home office of the Hixen-O'Donnell agency which has been handling the advertising campaign.

Directors of the chamber decided that since the peak of the season is on at present, publicity and advertising at this time would have no appreciable effect on trade results.

Finds Scotties In Lonely Spot

Who lost a pair of Scotties? Ed Hawkins, driving down the Palms to Pines highway yesterday morning, saw the two Scotties standing forlornly in the middle of the highway, "a million miles from nowhere," as he put it.

There were no cars in sight and not a person in sight. So he picked them up and brought them to Dr. O. B. McRory, veterinarian, where they now are and may be claimed by the owners.

Youth Wanted On Check Charge

Ray Kennedy, 28, is wanted by local police on a charge of issuing worthless checks at various local spots. The amount of the checks reported to date, totals $250, police said.

Warrant for his arrest was signed by Douglas Schwart of the Desert Camera shop.

Girl Scouts to Stage Exhibit

Next Wednesday, Jan. 22, there will be a display of stuffed toys, made by Palm Springs Girl Scouts and Brownies, it was announced today. There will also be a showing of family garden packages prepared by the girls and destined for the Balkans and Greece.

The display will be shown at the chamber of commerce and at the Palm Springs Department and Hardware store.

Examination Time Just Ahead With Finals Dates Set

The fall semester will close with 3 days of final examinations Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 29, 30, 31.

Those finals will be two hours in length. Students finishing the test will be allowed to leave after the first hour, while a full two hours will be allowed for those who need it.

The grades for the finals will have a value of 25% and will be averaged with three "marking period" grades with values of 25% each for semester grades which will be recorded on the permanent record cards.

The following is a schedule for the examinations:

Jan. 29: Per. 1 8:30-10:30; Per. 2 10:30-12:30; Per. 3 1:30-3:30.
Jan. 30: Per. 4 8:30-10:30; Per. 5 10:30-12:30; Per. 6 1:30-3:30.
Jan. 31: Per. 7 8:30-10:30; assembly 10:30-12:30.

CONSEQUENCES—Bud Didrickson and Dick Henson are seen as they are eating cream pies for participation in Thursday's assembly at P.S.H.S. (Jim Carlin Photo).

Truth or Consequences Program at High School Hilarious Affair

Above is a picture of Bud Didrickson and Dick Henson as they participated in the "Truth or Consequences" program presented for an assembly at P.S.H.S. last Thursday. The boys are industriously attempting to eat cream pies without the aid of a fork or the use of their hands. This predicament was the result of Dick and Bud failing to answer correctly the question presented to them.

Many comical situations were created for the contestants by Chuck Stone and Jill Norris, who were the masters of ceremonies.

AMONG THEM was the baby contest said to have been sponsored by the "Ursie Burpsie" milk company. The participants were representatives from each of the classes, they are as follows: Craig Hammond, Jim Willis, Bonnie Sue Taylor and Ralph Woodward. After failing to answer the given question, the students were given bibs and bonnets to wear and were instructed to take off their shoes. Then each of them were given baby bottles complete with nipples and 4 ounces of milk. The object was to see who could drink the milk fastest. Jim Willis finished first and won a rattle for a prize.

A farewell note and a cap gun were planted in Sandra Veano's purse. Sandra was unaware of this, and was very shocked when she came upon stage to have her purse searched. When the note was read and the gun exposed, Sandra immediately screamed out protests and wild explanations.

OTHER CONTESTANTS were Betty Jo Roth who did a duck-walk to Conga rhythm, Don Williams who impersonated Max Factor and put make-up on Sally Robinson's face.

Don Whitehead also contributed by eating crackers and singing "Five Minutes More" simultaneously.

The most exciting event was when the left over cream pies were aimed at Chuck Stone by Dick Henson and Bud Didrickson. Chuck didn't dodge quick enough and was literally bathed in cream pie.

Mrs. Bennett Talks to English Class on Poets, Poetry

Mrs. Melba Bennett came to speak to the second year English class last Friday on poets and poetry.

Mrs. Bennett has been collecting modern American poetry since she was twelve years old. Her favorite poet is Robertson Jeffers.

Mrs. Bennett's talk was informal. She showed her beautiful collection of first edition poetry books. She read a few poems to the class and told a few facts about her collection.

The class seemed to enjoy Mrs. Bennett's talk very much and many were heard to say they wished she would come back soon again.

Baton Twirling Classes Started

Mr. Patzner, conductor of the P.S.H.S. band and orchestra, is directing eighteen girls trying for majorettes in activity period. He has this year's majorettes, Lolo Vallier and Barbara Beeton, showing the beginners a few pointers and some routines.

Mr. Patzner hopes to be able to have a bevy of girls trained by the beginning of the football season next fall.

Soviet Russia is now 29 years old physically, with no estimates immediately available on her mental development.

Student Employed To Aid in Office at High School

An office assistant has been obtained to assist Mrs. Phyllis Kiley, school secretary. The school board authorized the office to obtain an assistant for Mrs. Kiley. Dorothy Winterton has accepted the position and works in the office daily from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

There are no volunteer office assistants at this time. Miss Winterton is a student at the school and an employee of the district. Her work consists of typing, checking attendance and keeping the permanent records of students.

Dorothy said when asked how she liked the new job, "I find the office work very interesting and enjoy doing it very much."

Honor Students Have Day of Fun

Does it pay to be an honor student? It sure does. Wednesday the Scholarship society took a day off from school to go into Los Angeles to see the stage show Lutesong.

Mrs. Kathryn Martin was in charge of the group. They went to town in two cars. They had luncheon at the Builmore and enjoyed a full day of fun.

"ON THE WAR PATH"

Bulldogs subdue Indians 32-30. Palm Springs "Indians" lost to the Hemet "Bulldogs" in a fast and furious basketball game held at the Army Air Field gymnasium last Friday.

As the first quarter ended the Indians were out front 13 to 5, and again at the half the Indians led 20 to 14.

At the end of the third quarter the score stood 30 to 30. About this time Palm Springs and Hemet rooters started pulling their hair and chewing their finger nails.

Near the end of the game Hemet dropped a short one thru the Indians net, thus winning the game 32 to 30.

Don Williams was high point man for the Indians and "Shorty" Kowser for Hemet with 9 and 12 points respectively.

The Indians fouled 19 times to Hemet's 10 fouls. Palm Springs made 4 out of 10 free throws and Hemet made 12 out of 19.

The "Bee" squad lost to Hemet's "Bee's" 27 to 33.

Dr. Eric Mann to Address Forum on Thursday, Jan. 23

The third speaker in the current series of free public forum meetings on the theme "Toward a People's Peace" will be Dr. Eric Mann, lecturer, historian, traveler and author Thursday Jan. 23. Dr. Mann is a popular lecturer on the west coast this season.

He is considered to be an outstanding author on European affairs. He was born in Vienna and has traveled in practically every country in the world. He has a reputation of being a dynamic, authoritative and courageous speaker. His famous lectures on Germany and Middle Europe have made a profound impression on people from coast to coast.

DR. MANN'S LECTURE to the Palm Springs Forum group is entitled "Peace in the Atomic Age." Local residents have attended the forum meetings well. The first forum meeting drew 131, and the last meeting, at which a panel of four speakers were presented, attracted 124 listeners. It is expected that the speaker at the third meeting will have a still larger audience.

Dr. Mann watched the collapse of the old Austrian empire at the time of World War I. He was in Poland when the Nazis invaded that country. After his escape he predicted the invasion of Scandinavia by Germany, and also that Russia would fight well for a long period of time if attacked by Germany. He predicted the attack upon Pearl Harbor six weeks before it occurred.

Mrs. Coffman's Brother Taken

Last rites will be said tomorrow for Owen Orr, brother of Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman, who succumbed Tuesday in his home in San Francisco.

He was the only brother of Mrs. Coffman, founder of the Desert Inn.

He was a retired official of the Prudential Life Insurance company and was a visitor in Palm Springs last fall.

Mrs. Cameron Asks Divorce

Don Cameron, through his attorney, Hilton McCabe, Palm Springs, announced that a cross complaint is in the process of being prepared and will be filed either late today or tomorrow.

Hearing on Mrs. Cameron's petition for temporary alimony and that all community property and funds be held in attachment until the divorce case is settled will be heard in the superior court of Judge Russel Waite, Monday at 10 a.m.

Meet Harbor Club
in Shoot Sunday

This Sunday, January 19, the Palm Springs-Coachella Valley Pistol and Rifle club will be host to the Harbor Rifle and Pistol club of Long Beach in which the harbor club will fire their regular monthly match for January on the Palm Springs range, thus taking advantage of warm desert sunshine for "something different."

It is expected that sixty or more shooters will participate since the invitation was likewise made to the Glendale Rifle and Revolver club. Both clubs possess some of the outstanding small bore rifle experts in the nation, several of whom are women and among these are blond Ruth Davis of Glendale, executive officer who last fall set a new women's record over the "Dewar" course at Camp Perry, and Gladys Rising, secretary of the harbor club who also shot a new women's record over the fifty meter course at the recently held Southwest Championship tournament at Glendale.

DURING the shoot, both Palm Springs and the harbor club will pit five man teams for a match. Firing, starting at 8:30 a.m. and continuing all day, will be at 50 and 100 yards with .22 caliber rifles and the public is cordially invited to watch. Through courtesy of the Chuckwagon cafe in Cathedral City, hamburgers, chili, doughnuts and coffee will be served in which the proceeds will go to the building fund of the Palm Springs club's recently installed night range.

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT marked the starting of a five-week contest on the night range in which a large number of members were on hand with scores that promise to make the contest a good one. Setting the stride were Harry H. Mann and Art Whitlock in Expert class with scores 399-31X and 394-22X respectively, both out of a possible 400-40X perfect score. Following closely were Warren James, 393-20X, and J.V. Moore with 392-18X.

Sharpshooter Class leaders were Robt. Camp with 389-16X and Lester P. Peck with 385-11X while Marksmen Class leaders were represented by I. C. McCoy and "Angie" Whitlock, the club's only woman member with scores 378-3X and 354-2X respectively. To fully appreciate values of these scores, Mann who is in charge of the shoots, pointed out that the "Ten Ring" which is often called on to break ties, measures but one-half inch. All are cordially invited to watch these matches held every Friday night starting at 6:30 and will enjoy warmth and cordiality of an open fire while doing so.

Veterans Groups In Meetings Here Wednesday Night

Two service groups, the Disabled American Veterans, chapter 66 of Palm Springs and the Veterans of Foreign Wars met Wednesday night.

At the former, the biggest turnout of members so far this season took place. Dr. James E. Potter, commander presided. Four new members were examined for qualifications and taken into the organization. Henry Menard was appointed service officer and Adolph Bensing, sergeant at arms. Ray Hiller adjutant, reported on the financial standing of the organization and said there was enough in the treasury to carry the day. Next meeting is February 12. Dr. Potter will represent the local chapter at a state meeting Feb. 19.

At the VFW meeting in the El Paseo theater, Glen Rogers, commander, presided. A committee to work out a dinner-dance in conjunction with the Community Chest-Community hospital drive was organized.

will be held at the Palm Springs high school auditorium.

AT NOON the two groups will get together at the Palm House for luncheon, Commander Sanborn said.

More than 250 Legionnaires are expected to be present for the all-day session.

George Boldin of Banning is commander of the district and Mrs. Edward Peterson of Riverside, president of the auxiliary.

SESSIONS will start at 10 a.m. and until noon business affairs will be discussed.

In the afternoon, speaker of the day will be William Murphy, FBI man, stationed at San Diego.

The Legion session will be opened by Commander Sanborn who will then turn it over to Commander Boldin.

Mrs. Harold Lienau, president of the local auxiliary, will open the auxiliary meeting and then turn the gavel over to Mrs. Peterson.

The auxiliary section of the convention will see delegates from 30 units in the two counties in attendance, Mrs. Lienau said.

Guests of honor at the session will include Mrs. Sidney Brannan of Palo Alto, state president; state chairmen, Mrs. Wharton Taylor, Fort Bragg, education; Mrs. Merna Wynkoop, Temple City, girls' work; Mrs. Patti Ostrander, El Centro, Pan-American; Mrs. Merta Thompson, Imperial, 22nd district president; Mrs. Mary Files, Temple City, 18th district sergeant-at-arms.

And the following district presidents in Southern California: Mrs. Margaret Warwick, Maywood; Mrs. Ott Lewis, Burbank; Mrs. Thomas E. Bassett, Venice; Mrs. Edward Lynch, Beverly Hills; Mrs. W. J. Larkin, Upland; and Mrs. Mary Files, Temple City, 18th district sergeant-at-arms.

The meeting and luncheon is open to all American Legion auxiliary members.

expositions, shows and similar other events here, the Legion leaders have been assured by Chamber of Commerce officials. Conventions now are being turned down because of the lack of adequate meeting and eating quarters in Palm Springs.

FRONT ELEVATION of the building will be strikingly simple but marked by a spectacular use of glass as the entire front wall at the right side of the structure. Doors entering the 19 by 33 foot lobby enter through this glass wall, and the stairway to the mezzanine is visible from the street through this spectacular glass wall.

Off this lobby is the main entrance to the large Legion and Convention Hall 58 by 70 feet in size and capable of seating more than 600 persons at a meeting and large enough for banquets of more than 300 persons. Also opening off the lobby are the administrative office and check room. Immediately back of these two smaller rooms is a hallway off which is the entrance to the spacious kitchen, 19 by 32 feet, which is believed large enough to prepare the food speedily for the convention gatherings.

ABOVE THIS SECTION of the building is the mezzanine with a meeting space of 20 by 45 feet with the addition of space on the balcony. This area will be available for smaller meetings and is now desired by women's groups of Palm Springs, Commander Sanborn disclosed. Women's Lounge is on this floor.

Under the entire right side of the building is a basement level in which will be located the men's lounge and rest rooms, store rooms and furnace room.

AT THE EAST END of the main auditorium a stage of adequate proportions for plays and other productions is to be provided. This will be 22 by 36 feet in size and will be flanked on the left by the broadcasting control room and on the right by a dressing room. Since the auditorium is expected to be in great demand for radio broadcasts originating from Palm Springs, the control room is to be completely equipped for major air productions. At present, difficulty is encountered by the Chamber of Commerce in finding locations here from which nationally-known radio programs can be originated, the Legion has learned.

Total square footage of the auditorium is 12,300, the plans show, with this figure divided as follows: under high ceiling of auditorium, 5600; under low ceiling, 1900; basement, 2200 and mezzanine, 2600.

Arizona contains more national monuments than any other state in the Union.

Hospital . . .

in giving the community an excellent and efficient hospital should be kept under control and this operation should be shared by the board of directors and the management," added Jay.

He said that the members of the hospital association are ambassadors of good will and must interest themselves in its growth and operation. The hospital will reflect the actions of its supporters, Jay declared. He said that December receipts as of December 15, amounted to $9,055. This compared with disbursements of $10,398, or a difference of $1,004.

ABOUT THIS TIME, Henry Reid Jr., son of Doctor Henry S. Reid, gained the floor and told the audience that in his opinion his father was qualified to practice at the Community hospital but was barred because he did not belong to the Riverside County Medical association. In doing so, the son's fiery speech sketched for his listeners the schools his father attended in obtaining his medical degree and that he had had post-graduate work in Vienna. He said his father's application for membership with the Riverside Medical association was turned down 17 years ago because for two weeks he had allowed an osteopath to practice at his father's clinic here.

"And," young Reid declared, the osteopath forced on my father, was only permitted to do routine duties at the hospital such as laboratory work and making night calls only in the practice of medicine and not osteopathy."

DR. JOSEPH D'ALESSIO also spoke in behalf of Dr. Reid as well as for himself. Dr. Reid too, asked that the decision as to whether non-members of the Riverside Medical association should be permitted to practice at the Community hospital should be taken out of the hands of the board of directors and left for a decision with all the members of the organization.

Dr. John R. Macartney also took the floor and asked that members be given a chance to decide whether that part of the hospital's by-laws should not be re-written, if the members decide to allow other than staff doctors to practice at the hospital.

KENNETH KIRK cited a letter addressed to him by Dr. Macartney and published in a Palm Springs newspaper personally addressed to him by the minister of the Community church. Kirk said he was unable to see any reason why he should answer the letter publicly and in a friendly conversation with Doctor Macartney explained why.

The heated part of the meeting took place when an anonymous letter sent to Doctor the large number of persons using them.

As the picture sums itself up, the Palm Springs Water company has already spent thousands on this section of land without, as is in the case of others, asking for the cost of material and labor in advance. The money thus expended, it was pointed out, will be a long time in returning to the utilities' coffers. Recently, water mains were installed and several fire hydrants are awaiting installation to give some protection against such destructive fires that have swept many of these dwellings in the past.

THE CITY is conducting a survey to determine what violations in building and electrical and plumbing ordinances have been committed and if found, seek ways and means of correcting them.

The AMVETS, desirous of taking a part in the well-being of the community, intend to put pressure on federal agencies in Washington, D. C., through its national headquarters in the nation's capital, bring about a correction of conditions on the reservation which has periodically come up for discussion and then forgotten.

Macartney was read in which the writer claimed a heart patient died as a result of a long trip to Los Angeles after being refused admission to the local hospital.

Kenneth Kirk asked that the board of directors appoint a committee to investigate the incident and attempt to find the true facts in the case. Kirk emphatically denied he had advised against reading the letter at the meeting yesterday and to prove his statement did read the letter.

Judge Eugene E. Theriau, president of the hospital association, announced that a meeting of the board of directors will be held on January 31, at which time the officers of the association will be elected from the directorate, composed of thirty members.

James Shea Back in His 2 Original Posts in Village

Back where he was before the Man with the Whiskers called him into uniform was James Shea, travelling passenger agent for the Southern Pacific.

And that statement goes two ways. For not only is he back as passenger agent for the S. P. but he is also again vice-president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

He was elected to succeed the late Cecil Isenogle at a meeting of the board of directors of the chamber recently.

Shea was vice-president of the C. of C. when he went into the armed forces—also travelling passenger agent here. So he has both of the old posts back today.

Members and Guests Up Before Dawn to Ride to Rendezvous for Breakfast in the Open and Cowboy Entertainment

By BILL RASHALL

Rugged, or the word "hardy," doesn't quite describe the members, guests and winter residents who took part in the first ride of the season under the auspices of the fifteen-year-old Desert Riders last Wednesday morning.

Converging from the many stables in the Village, horsemen and horsewomen crowded the trails which led to a point beyond the old gun club at Araby point where breakfast awaited at the unearthly morning hour of 8 a. m. by Palm Springs standards.

BUT THAT'S only part of the story.

In order to get to the chow line in time the five-mile ride across the desert made it necessary for participants to arise at 6 a. m., don boots, riding togs and spurs and then race by automobile out to one's favorite stable where a mount waited in the cold bracing air of the desert.

Before the first mile was traversed, no one seemed to notice the cold wind that tugged at huge sombrero hats. Sleepy eyes and faces seemed to awaken and cheeks took on the color of rosy apples.

CONVERSATION among the various group of riders became more animated and by the time they arrived at the rendezvous point, the scene looked more like a noon luncheon so happy and gay were actions of those present and lively the conversation, jokes and repartee.

In no time at all the "chuck" wagon boys had chow ready and it didn't take any coaxing or a second call for breakfast for all those present to line up for breakfast. Jack Boyer knows how to prepare these outdoor meals.

IT WAS NO PLACE for anybody on a diet and this was evident in the amount of food that Barney Hinckle devoured. He has been on a calorie diet for sometime but all the calorie counting was forgotten as he heaped his plate with scrambled eggs, raisin bread, country sausage, bacon, and two or three orders of hot cakes. Mrs. Hinckle looked at Barney in consternation and declared that she would deprive him of both his lunch and dinner as a result. By the way, she too, is on a diet, she said. During the course of the breakfast the riders were entertained by Bill Pruitt, who accompanied himself on the guitar and he was later joined in a number or two by Johnny Boyle.

ABOUT THIS TIME a prankish desert wind started stirring up a little unwanted dust and newly elected "Round-up Boss" Toney Burke (really the president) of the Desert Riders, arose and introduced the other officers of the club. Frank Bogert, boss of the new Thunderbird Ranch, was introduced as the "straw-boss," Mrs. George Archer, as "top wrangler" (secretary); Frederick Watson, "buck-boss" (treasurer); and Melba Bennett as "trail boss."

Raymond Cree, president of the Palm Springs Horsemen's Association, was then introduced and told about the trails on mountain and desert as did Mrs. Bennett who followed him. Also present was Wal Spalding, president of the Los Compadres.

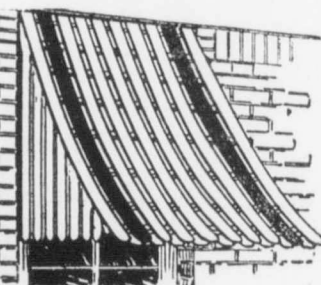

MEMBERS present on this first ride were Frank Bogert, Albert Burki, Raymond Cree, Helen Hurd, Jennie Lawson, Melba Bennett, Caroline Hicks, Winifred Archer, Billie Grim, Earl Cordrey, Mary and Phil Delano, Carl Lykken, and Marie Edna-borden.

Guests present were: Doris Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant, Johnny Boyle, Anita Haskell Jones, Doctor Drury, Carl Henderson, Marian Bunker, Emilie Spaulding, Bill Rashall, R. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cashman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Birge, Hazel Myer, Jack Reuber, Glen Rogers, Earl Strebe, Bill Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George Strebe, Jay Rollman, special passenger agent for the Santa Fe here.

Tramway Will Make Village Leading Center of Sports

When the tramway is built, Palm Springs will become the greatest winter sport area in the country, according to Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, who was a guest at the La Paz guest ranch last weekend. With Dempsey was Abe Roth, noted fight referee.

Dempsey was just here for two days but expects to return next week with his two daughters.

RIGHT NOW he is engaged in touring the country for the Adams Hat company as a sort of good-will ambassador to promote sports in a move to combat juvenile delinquency. His firm has set aside $100,000 for playgrounds and for other sports equipment to make the youth of the nation sports-minded. Dempsey is touring the nation to promote this plan.

He went from here to San Francisco, Oakland and Portland in the interests of the program and will be back here Saturday.

SPEAKING in various cities along the coast, he is promoting more playground areas, a healthy recreation program for youngsters and a sports plan designed to combat juvenile delinquency in the nation.

Dempsey was highly pleased with what he found here. "It's a great town," he told Miss Sougey.

Old Friends in Re-Union Here

Fred Angelus, maitre d'-hotel at Don Manchester's Bombay, got a pleasant surprise Friday night when Phil Raffin, his former boss at the Somerset House in Hollywood, dropped in at the Bombay for some authentic East Indian curry. Mrs. Raffin, the former Trudy Marshall of picture fame, was with him and the three old friends had quite a reunion.

Truman Bradley, the man with the voice that has stimulated millions of radio listeners for many years, was another Bombay visitor, lapping up curry with Jimmy Skylar of Hollywood. It was old home night Saturday night at Bombay. Among the familiar faces were Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Stanley Rosin, with a honeymoon couple from Milwaukee. Trav and Mrs. Rogers were with their nephew Glenn, Florian Boyd and his brother-in-law, Sam and Leo and their wives, Dr. D'Alessio sans wife who is ill came in and said he enjoyed the quiet restfulness of Don Manchester's newest eatery. Bill Foldes walked in, accompanied by several Hungarians from Budapest. By an amazing happenstance one of the ladies turned out to be the daughter of the man who advised Fred, Bombay's maitre d'-hotel, how to get into this country years ago. Fred, a Hungarian himself, was counseled to "grow long hair, carry a violin, and say you're a musician, they'll let you in, and they did."

Ever see a movie out under the stars, by a swimming pool? Guests at El Irisado were treated to a preview of "The Time, The Place, and The Girl" last Saturday night, through the courtesy of Dr. Max Rubenstein and Curt Loneragan, guests at the new establishment.

Dr. Rubenstein, who is the attending doctor for most of the members of the Warner Brothers technicolor musical and many other stars, and Loneragan are spending a few weeks at El Irisado where their old friend, Mary McMurray is manager. They brought along a number of new film prints and expect to show additional movies during their stay.

"The Time, The Place, and The Girl" opens this week in Los Angeles, so El Irisado can qualify as a sneak preview house from now on.

Palm Springs Trio Much in Demand in Village, Southland

Palm Springs Rotary club was entertained Wednesday by the Palm Springs trio which has revived its activity for the season and is now much in demand.

Recently they appeared before the Indio Woman's club and the Santa Ana Lions club.

Mrs. Emil Wagner has gone to Balboa Island but is making the trip up here for rehearsals with the trio and for public appearances.

The trio consists of Holly Lash Visel, Violet Fowler and Mildred Wagner. Mrs. Lois Lux is the accompanist on the piano and this year the trio has added D'Esta Williams, harpist, as accompanist and soloist.

The Palm Springs trio has gained favorable mention wherever they have appeared.

If it develops that while throwing a rascal out you voted another in, don't repine. It will take the new boy a couple of years to learn the signals.

Christian Science Lesson Subject "Life"

The Golden Text of the Sunday
Lesson-Sermon on "Life" in all branches of The Mother Church,
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from I John and reads, "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son."

In John's Gospel it is reported that Jesus comforted his disciples with these words: "I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world; again, I leave the world, and go to the Father." And he "lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Our Master taught no mere theory, doctrine, or belief. It was the divine Principle of all real being which he taught and practised. His proof of Christianity was no form or system of religion and worship, but Christian Science, working out the harmony of Life and Love."

The American farm population decreased from 30,390,000 in 1940 to 25,630,000 in 1944, according to census reports.

Missionary To Speak in Village

Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor, will deliver the sermon at 11
a. m., Sunday, at the Community Church and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a talk by W.
Byrton Martin, brother-in-law of the Rev. James Blackstone.

Mr. Martin is about to leave for the Orient where he will promote visual education along religious lines in China.

"A growing amount of missionary appeal is being made through moving pictures," Dr.
Macartney said. The visual appeal is being made on the ground that only 20 per cent of what one hears is remembered while 80 per cent of what one sees is retained."

Young People To Go to Mountains

A group of young people of Community church will go to Forest Home in Mill Creek canyon back of Redlands January 24-26 for a Bible conference.
They will be billeted at the homes of Dr. J. R. Macartney and Miss Katherine Khury.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Blackstone will accompany the young people and direct their activities.

Report Affairs of Episcopal Church in Fine Condition

The annual meeting of the parish of St. Paul in the Desert, Episcopal, was held at a luncheon
in the Desert Inn on Monday, January 13.

Elected to the Vestry for the current year were Frank W.
Camp, Fred M. Carter, Roy W.
Colegate, Francis F. Crocker, H.
Earl Hoover, Kenneth B. Kirk, Harrison Leussler, Fred S. Markham, Herbert Samson, Channing M. Wells, and Raymond R. Wilson. Honorary associates named were Levering Moore, Myron V.
Wilson and Charles W. Woodson.

The Rector, appointed as his church warden, Fred M. Carter, the Vestry elected Raymond R.
Wilson as people's church warden, Frank W. Camp, clerk and Francis F. Crocker, treasurer.
H. Earl Hoover, finance chairman, reported cash, securities and U. S. bonds in the Parish Hall building fund at present market value of $34,274.35. Mrs. Raymond R. Wilson, building committee chairman, made a glowing report of plans for the future. It may be possible to build one wing of the Parish Hall this present year, with seven Sunday School classrooms, which are badly needed for the growing school, and it was voted to begin a campaign immediately to raise more funds, both for the Sunday School unit, and for the complete building, when materials are available and prices reasonable. Mrs. Frank C. Finch, retiring president of the Guild, reported excellent progress for the year.

The Guild held the annual election for the current year at the home of Mrs. John S. Lapp, Rock Point, with Mrs. Frank C. Finch, presiding. Mrs. John S. Lapp, president; Mrs. Jacques B. Crommelin, first vice president; Mrs.
Levering Moore, second vice president; Mrs. Edward H. Maggard, secretary and Mrs. H. Earl Hoover, treasurer.

Annual Census Plans Mapped

Plans for the annual census of religious faiths and states of origin at Community church are being made.

The census by states will be taken February 2 at the church.
Native states of those attending will be listed. Last year there were 40 states and 12 foreign

Western Air Aids Sportsmen in Quick Dispatch of Game

Of much interest to Nelson B. Cramer of the Vee-Bee ranches in South Dakota, was the announcement this week by the Western Air Lines that almost three and one-half tons of dressed and frozen pheasants were air-freighted out of South Dakota by that line during the annual hunting season which closed last month.

Cramer is a guest at the Colonial House, returning to the Village Tuesday after a brief previous stay. He is here to take reservations on the Vee-Bar for next season, dates for which have not yet been announced.

DURING THE FIRST PART of the hunting season, Western Air's four flights a day through the bird country carried as high as 300 pounds of pheasants per plane, the luscious meat being destined for sportsmen's tables all over the U. S. A large portion of it was consigned to Southern California.

Heaviest shipments, totalling 5,574 pounds, were from Pierre, October was the largest month with 4,407 pounds. Huron shipped 1,013 pounds of pheasants via Western Air Lines, and Rapid City shipped 231 pounds for a total of 6,818 pounds.

SOUTH DAKOTA is known to sportsmen as the ringneck capital of the world. A bird census made two years ago placed its pheasant population at sixteen million birds.

The Vee Bar ranches, comprising 3,500 acres, are near Mitchell, South Dakota, in the southwestern part of the state. Sportsmen come from all over the nation to stay at the ranch and hunt pheasants.

"Finding yourself" may prove to be a disappointing discovery.

Children Have Merry Times at Tahquitz Vista

Tahquitz Vista Hotel and Apartments has another jolly group of children as their guests.

One merry round of pleasure as well as study is being enjoyed by all the youngsters. A treasure hunt as well as a picnic lunch up in the mountains was one of the outstanding features of the program last week.

Not only playing of games, swimming, and burro train trips to beautiful Tahquitz falls, but educational trips and hikes are included.

Desert field trips and the use of the well equipped museum of Palm Springs, to help know the desert, are also on the program.

The week is usually completed by a special children's matinee on Saturday afternoon supervised by the recreation hostess Mrs. Giraud.

The guests this week includes Sandra Phillips, Peter Bloom, Nancy Gerelick, Steven Penn, Charla Freedman, Bobby Sanders, Allen and Merrideth Alpert, Henry and Mimi Pocras, Suzann and Richard Carpenetti.

Let us recall that some of the problems before the Security Council now being successfully dealt with by the processes of discussion and meetings a few short years ago would have broken out in actual war.

—Miss Mabel Head, UN observer for United Council of Church Women.

MEASURED

The smallest fog particles have been measured by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It was found that 25,000 of them could be placed on the head of a pin.

One of the most common mistakes adults make is that we are apt to treat young people as if they belonged in a class by themselves.—Rev. Raymond M. O'Brien of Peekskill, N. Y.

DESERT BATS—Part I
By D. G. Constantine

Nearly everybody has, at one time or another, observed a bat fluttering about in the twilight. Most of us regard it with disgust, know little about it and care less. We usually jump with alarm if it flies too close, because we have been told it will become entangled in our hair. But, like so many of the legends about bats, this belief is untrue. With the exception of one tropical American form, the small vampire bat (greatly exaggerated in fiction and movies), bats do no discomfort to the human race. Rather, the majority of bats consume many times their own weight in harmful insects every night, and are therefore of great benefit to humanity. It might be added that bat colonies have been artificially established in many sections of this country for the prime purpose of controlling malaria mosquitoes. We all know that bat guano, mined from caves and recesses where bats habitually roost, is highly prized as fertilizer.

IF YOU WERE to encounter one of these little mammals in the daytime, you would probably find it hanging by its toes from the roof of some cave, attic, or even the underside of a leaf. It might appear to you quite like a small mouse; a little ball of soft fur, with two bright shiny black eyes, a set of small white teeth, and two long protruding ears, sometimes even as long as the body itself. If the bat is a female, closer inspection is apt to reveal one or more pink baby bats clinging to the animal. The young are thus carried about in flight, with no apparent discomfort to the mother.

A sudden disturbance will bring about an astounding and startling transformation as the animal spreads its folded wings and takes flight. If the observer is quick enough, he might notice that the wing is composed of elongated finger bones, or phalanges, which are all connected by a thin double layer of skin or membrane. These wings, in flight, give the bat a superficial resemblance to birds, but it actually a mammal, since it possesses hair and nourishes its young with milk.

IF THE BAT were to take wing and fly into total pitch blackness, it would be in no danger of a collision with any object in its path. This is not because the bat can see in total blackness, because it cannot. Rather, this mammal has a wonderful radar system of its own which is employed by uttering a series of very high-pitched rapid supersonic cries or squeakings, which, through reflection or echoes from nearby objects, give the bat a mental picture of its immediate environment. In this manner, a bat can readily detect any obstacle in its path in plenty of time to avoid it. If the animal flies into strong daylight from a dark cave or deep hole, it may be temporarily blinded, but as its eyes become adjusted to the lighter conditions, it will seek out another dark nook in which to hide through the day. Bats are not blind, by any means, in spite of the universal axiom: "Blind as a bat."

If the bat you are observing flutters over a pool of water and appears to strike the surface, don't be mystified. It is not bathing, merely drinking. Or it may be snatching up water insects at or near the surface of the pool.

BATS vary to an amazing degree in size, description and habits. One fruit-eating species in the East Indies has a face like a fox and a wingspread sometimes exceeding five feet. It is often called the Flying Fox, but is a strict vegetarian. The Central and South American vampire lives solely upon a diet of fresh blood, which it obtains from any warm blooded animal it can find, including man if he's available.

The vampire doesn't suck blood from its victims. Instead, its razor-sharp chisel-shaped teeth scrape the skin until the blood oozes out, and then the bat laps it up like a cat drinking milk. Since this bat's wings measure but little over a foot from tip to tip, it cannot drain much more than a thimble-full of blood per night. Not the giant blood-sucker of Dracula fame at all, which was supposed to kill a man in one or two nights.

Many are the unusual faces of bats. The vampire's is like that of a bulldog's. Another species has elongated tubular nostrils, like miniature elephant trunks, while the head of another resembles that of a horse. Many bats possess complicated dermal appendages which may be attached to either the chin or the nose. These appendages are often shaped like inverted leaves, perhaps singular or sometimes in a series of complimentary leaves. Another extreme is found in the pollen-eating bat of our Southwest. This strange creature has an elongated muzzle three or four times as long as it is broad. This muzzle harbors an extremely long tongue which is tipped with a small brush. The brush is employed in gathering pollen from the night-blooming desert plants, and certain of these plants are entirely dependent upon these odd bats for the fertilization of their flowers.

THE BATS of the Palm Springs area, which number 13 species belonging to 9 different genera, include the largest and the most interesting selection in North America. The Little Canyon Bat, for instance, has whitish gray fur, a face resembling that of a mouse, and a wingspread of seven inches. The Mastiff Bat derives its name from its extraordinary face, which resembles that of a mastiff dog. This bat has a wingspan of nearly two feet. The California Leaf-nosed bat is intermediate in size and possesses huge ears and a flesh nose-leaf or pointed nasal appendage.

Mrs. Robert Haynes of Palm Springs recently made mammalogical history when she captured a bat in her backyard, a bat which proved to be of a species formerly known only from the southern half of the peninsula of Baja, California, Mexico, and heretofore never recorded within the boundaries of the United States! This bat is called the Sierra Laguna Bat (Dasypterus ega xanthinus) and so far, Palm Springs is the only locality this side of the border where it has been taken. Several other quite rare bats have recently been discovered in quantity near Palm Springs, and further investigation will undoubtedly yield interesting results.

War-time research to combat mildew has resulted in a fungicide for household use which protects fabrics from mildew by destroying the growth when it appears. Its effect lasts for several months.
